

L'Alliance Française de Denver Scholarships 2019

The Alliance Française de Denver is offering:

1. Three 'project' scholarships for a total amount of $3000 (*) within these three categories:

- A student (High School or University)
- A French teacher or professor of French language in Colorado
- An individual or organization proposing a cultural or artistic project.

These scholarships are to be used on a project to be carried out during 2019. After completing their work the recipients of the scholarships will be required to share their experiences with AF members during 2019-2020 in a presentation or seminar or in some other form appropriate for their project.

() The Alliance Française de Denver reserves the right to grant the scholarships to the most deserving projects in an amount appropriate to the work to be performed.*

2. Seven 'class' scholarships with a total amount of $2800 (*) will be granted to applicants in need of financial aid.

These scholarships are to be used toward AF classes taken in 2019.

3. One 'school' scholarship for a total amount of $1000 (*)

10 hours of French introductory classes will be provided to a School in the Denver/Boulder area that would like to implement a new French program but lacks the funds to do so.

To be carried out during 2019.

Affiliated with the Fondation Alliance Française in Paris, the Alliance Française de Denver is a non-profit, membership organization founded for the purpose of encouraging the study of French language and culture, and fostering friendship between French and American peoples. With the help of Molly Brown, the Alliance Française de Denver was founded in 1897 by Jean-Baptiste Mignolet, the French Consular Agent of Denver.

To foster American awareness of French culture and language, the Alliance Française de Denver provides French classes and organizes more than 110 cultural and social programs per year and offers 4 sessions of French classes in Denver and Boulder each year.
